

Connecting Veterans with Services in the Community

Aging and Disability Resource Centers (ADRCs) are the first place to go with your aging and disability questions. ADRCs are “information stations” where Veterans can obtain accurate, unbiased information related to aging or living with a disability.

ADRCs can help Veterans find:

- Adaptive Equipment
- Assisted Living/Nursing Home
- Employment Programs
- Financial Aid
- Health and Wellness
- Housing Options
- In-home Personal Care
- Nutrition Programs
- Prescription Drug Coverage
- Respite Care
- Support Groups
- Transportation

Working Together to help Veterans in the community

Place your local
ADRC contact information
here

This project was supported in part by grant number 90A10049, from the U.S. Administration on Aging, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. Grantees undertaking projects under government sponsorship are encouraged to express freely their findings and conclusions. Points of view or opinions do not, therefore, necessarily represent official Administration on Aging policy.

Veterans and The Aging and Disability Resource Center (ADRC)

Veterans and The ADRC

Veterans and the Aging and Disability Resource Centers (ADRC)

You served your country, now let us serve you! Aging and Disability Resource Centers, or ADRCs, offer Veterans a single source for information and assistance on issues affecting older people and people with disabilities regardless of their income. These Resource Centers are welcoming and convenient locations for you and your family to get information, advice, and access to a wide variety of services.

Health and Wellness

Today there are many ways that someone can stay healthy and avoid injury even if a person is getting older or living with a disability. The ADRC can make connections for you that will support your best possible health and safety.

Information and Assistance

Information and Assistance Specialists provide you with knowledge about services, programs, and solutions for long-term care issues such as living arrangements, health, adult protective services, employment and training for people with disabilities, home maintenance, nutrition, Social Security, and other publicly funded programs.

Benefits Counseling

Benefit Specialists can provide Veterans with accurate and current information about private and government benefits and programs that you may be entitled to receive. Benefit Specialists can cut the “red tape” when Veterans run into issues with Medicare, Social Security, and other benefits.

Long-term Care Options Counseling

Options Counselors offer information about the choices that are available to meet your long-term care needs. An Options Counselor discusses factors to consider when making long-term care decisions.

Help Paying for Long-Term Care

ADRCs are the entry-way to publicly funded long-term care programs. The ADRC will help assess your level of need for services and ensure that you are eligible. They can provide information about all the options available and help you select the solution best for you.

Vital Connections

If you or someone you know is at risk of abuse or neglect, losing your house or heat, the ADRC is there to help connect you with someone who will respond to your urgent situation.

